In today's volatile economy, the steady hand of a practiced partner can be your most valuable asset. You want confidence that your investment adviser will stay the course.

That's exactly what you get from KDV Wealth Management. We're committed to your success. Most importantly, you'll benefit from our signature personalized service.

On Aug. 21, KDV Wealth Management CEO Dave Hinnenkamp lent his expertise to Bloomberg Radio, explaining that ...

- The markets seem calmed in part because of the Federal Reserve's decision to pump cash into the economy. That shows the Fed is paying attention and willing to act to maintain an orderly market.
- Although the economy looks strong, there remain concerns that the credit crisis could cause a slowdown in consumer spending.
- Some strong financial services companies, such as Wells Fargo (NYSE: WFC) and J.P. Morgan (NYSE: JPM), have seen their stock prices tarnished by the subprime woes, and are now attractively priced.
- KDV maintains a strong asset allocation strategy, making relatively minor changes in client portfolios to account for times when the market is overvalued or undervalued.
