Dave Hinnenkamp
CEO, KDV Wealth Management
CNBC "Squawk on the Street"
Nov. 19, 2007

In today's volatile economy, the steady hand of a practiced partner can be your most valuable asset. You want confidence that your investment adviser will stay the course.

That's exactly what you get from KDV Wealth Management. We're committed to your success. Most importantly, you'll benefit from our signature personalized service.

On Nov. 19, CEO Dave Hinnenkamp lent his expertise to a CNBC segment, explaining that ...

- Investors with a propensity for risk should think about opportunities in the troubled financial services sector.
- It remains to be seen whether the Goldman Sachs downgrade of Citigroup (NYSE: C) is the last shoe to fall in the financial services sector.
- The impact of the economic gloom and doom on investors' psyche is more important than the impact on stock prices.
- Technology remains a sector for investors to consider. Corporate spending to upgrade technology may slow a bit, but should continue at a good pace.
