In today's volatile economy, the steady hand of a practiced partner can be your most valuable asset. You want confidence that your investment adviser will stay the course.

That's exactly what you get from KDV Wealth Management. We're committed to your success. Most importantly, you'll benefit from our signature personalized service.

On Feb. 15, CEO Dave Hinnenkamp lent his expertise to a CNBC segment, explaining that ...

- The market currently favors traders however there are opportunities for investors because there are several good buys available.
- Opportunities include financials although beaten down lately, there is room for growth. He suggests ETFs if you chose to invest here.
- We should see the impact of the stimulus package around May when Americans receive checks. This will take some time because the outcome heavily relies on consumer psyche.
- We are still seeing setbacks in the subprime sector but the real concern here is write downs. He poses the question "are these write downs real or will they come back into income?"
