

KDV Introduces Retirement Plan Solutions

May 17, 2010: Kern, DeWenter, Viere, Ltd. (KDV), a regional CPA and business advisory firm has added comprehensive retirement plan consulting solutions to its value-added service offerings. Cami Peterson and Gary Voggeser recently joined KDV's Retirement Solutions Division and bring a combined 43 years of experience working closely with fiduciaries and employees of qualified and non-qualified plans. They provide objective consulting on 401(k), 403(b), SEP, SIMPLE and non-qualified plans. With independent access to over 60 vendors and more than 20,000 mutual funds, they are able to maximize plan performance, provide a "high touch" service model, save clients time, manage fiduciary risks and reduce overall plan fees.

"KDV is a leader in providing financial solutions to small and mid-sized businesses. The addition of 401(k) profit sharing solutions fits into our overall plan to create more value for our clients," said Loren Viere, Managing Partner of KDV. "The Retirement Solutions Division will be part of our strong Wealth Management practice."

"Cami and Gary bring a significant depth of knowledge to the Wealth Management team. We are excited about Cami and Gary joining our team because of their experience in this highly technical area," said Dave Hinnenkamp, CEO of KDV Wealth Management. "The Retirement Solutions Division is an excellent complement to KDV Wealth Management when it comes to professional expertise and commitment to client service. This expanded service offering also aligns with our core mission of helping clients accumulate, protect and distribute their assets in accordance with their wishes."
