KDV Partner Earns Certified Fraud Examiner Credential

October 18, 2010: Steve Wischmann, KDV partner has earned his Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential from the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE). Wischmann has over twenty two years' diverse experience auditing entities ranging from $500 thousand to $1 billion in size.

As a Certified Fraud Examiner, Wischmann is skilled in four critical areas to fight against fraud: fraudulent financial transactions, criminology and ethics, legal elements of fraud and fraud investigation. He has the ability to:

- Examine data and records to detect and trace fraudulent transactions
- Interview suspects to obtain information and confessions
- Write investigation reports
- Advise clients as to the findings and testify at trial
- Be well-versed in the law as it relates to fraud and fraud investigations, and
- Understand the underlying factors that motivate individuals to commit fraud.

"I'm proud of Steve. He has worked hard to gain his certification. Through Steve's efforts KDV is now in a position to offer fraud investigation and forensic accounting services. In addition, it allows us to offer yet another value added service to our clients – fraud prevention consultative services", says Loren Viere, Managing Partner of KDV.

"I am excited about the opportunity to further support our clients in providing assistance to prevent and detect fraud in their organizations. Given the economic events of the past 18 months and pressures this has put on all employees, fraud prevention and detection is more critical than ever." says Wischmann.

About the ACFE

ACFE has been recognized as "the premier financial sleuthing organization" by The Wall Street Journal. For more information about the ACFE visit www.ACFE.com.
